

General Conference Scene It

We wanted to do a conference review for our youth, but were a little sick of the same way every time, so I came up with “General Conference Scene It” we thought this would be a great way to make sure all the kids played, even if they didn’t watch conference, lets face it, we know not all watch it, then sit at the review and do play. Plus even if they did watch it and don’t remember, this is a GREAT REVIEW.

I started to by thinking about different talks, and download one to view and cut the part I wanted, as I was looking through the church’s web site, I found “Conference Highlights” it had highlights and images from the 183rd Semiannual General Conference and What Apostles Said at the October 2013 General Conference. So I just download those, they had already picked important parts of each talk. I did also download I think it’s 4 other talks and cut those, I wanted those in it also!

Anyway I hope you enjoy!!

How to Play:

- DVD: Burn the DVD (ISO file) or save the MP4 file and show it from a computer.
- Ways to play
 - My Play (just one team plays)
 - All Play (all teams play and first to buzz answers question)
 - X2 double the points
- Dice: 1 regular dice and follow the following key (included to print) or Print and make the Dice that is included
 - 1) My Play (just one team plays)
 - 2) All Play (all teams play and first to buzz answers question)
 - 3) All Play X2
 - 4) My Play
 - 5) All Play
 - 6) My Play X2
- POINTS:
 - All questions are worth 5 points; if they roll an X2 then it is now worth 10 points. All bonus questions are also worth 5 points.
- TEAMS:
 - Divide into teams, do not do more than 5 on a team (less is better), because that just makes it so not all kids think they have to play, but just sit there.
- Other items needs:
 - Something to keep score on, large paper, chalk board, white board etc. Bells or buzzers, enough for each team. Maybe a paper and pen in case they need to write something down to figure it out, or if you add any extra questions that might include writing.
- Playing:
 - Figure out who is going first (roll the dice who ever get the highest number goes first)
 - Roll Dice- let that team roll the dice
 - if it’s MY PLAY: have team answer question, if they get it wrong, open it up for ALL PLAY
 - If it’s ALL PLAY: then the team that hits their buzzer with the correct answer first wins.
 - Play the first clip
 - After the time finishes pause the DVD so you can comment and give the right answer if you need too. Please note that this is not like the normal “Scene It” game, it’s just a running DVD, so you will need pause it and unpaue it. So it’s best to have someone running the DVD for you. If the kids answer the questions before the 30 seconds is up, then the timer will still need to count down.
 - Next turn is the next team, not matter who answers the question, you still go in order.
- There are 34 “ video questions”, “missing images” or “who is this?” slides, and the DVD running time is about 52 minutes.
- 2 part questions, some questions are 2 part questions, but still worth 5 points.
- Bonus questions: I have added a spot for a bonus questions for each clips, they are not included on the slide, this gives you a chance to ask your own question, while the DVD is paused. You can decide if you want the bonus question to be an ALL PLAY or just ask the team for an extra 5 points. I have added a question on a couple of them, but do what you want.
- Comments: It is up to the person who is the MC of the game if they want to point out something about the talk or add a comment or thought about each talk/slide

Daughters of God, do we know who we are? Do we know what we have? Are we worthy to receive the power and blessings of the priesthood? 5. The Strength to Endure By Elder Richard J. Maynes

Heavenly Father has organized our journey through life to be a test of our character. We are exposed to both good and evil influences and then given the moral agency to choose for ourselves which path we will take. As the ancient Book of Mormon prophet Samuel taught, “Ye are free; ye are permitted to act for yourselves; for behold, God hath given unto you a knowledge and he hath made you free.”²

Heavenly Father also understood that due to our mortality we would not always make the correct or righteous choice. Because we are not perfect and because we make mistakes, we need help in returning to His presence. The necessary help is provided through the teachings, example, and atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ. The Savior’s atoning sacrifice makes possible our future salvation and exaltation through the principle of repentance. If we honestly and sincerely repent, the Atonement can help us become clean, change our nature, and successfully endure our challenges.

- A. Question: Which Book of Mormon prophet does Elder Maynes refer to? Samuel
- B. Bonus questions

6. Come, Join with Us By President Dieter F. Uchtdorf

It is natural to have questions—the acorn of honest inquiry has often sprouted and matured into a great oak of understanding. There are few members of the Church who, at one time or another, have not wrestled with serious or sensitive questions. One of the purposes of the Church is to nurture and cultivate the seed of faith—even in the sometimes sandy soil of doubt and uncertainty. Faith is to hope for things which are not seen but which are true.

9. To My Grandchildren By President Henry B. Eyring

Heavenly Father has made each of us unique. No two of us have exactly the same experiences. No two families are alike. So it is not surprising that advice about how to choose happiness in family life is hard to give. Yet a loving Heavenly Father has set the same path to happiness for all of His children. Whatever our personal characteristics or whatever will be our experiences, there is but one plan of happiness. That plan is to follow all the commandments of God.

- A. Question: What does Pres Eyring say is the one plan of happiness? That plan is to follow all the commandments of God.
- B. Bonus questions

11. Personal Strength through the Atonement of Jesus Christ By Elder Richard G. Scott

The joyful news for anyone who desires to be rid of the consequences of poor choices is that the Lord sees weaknesses differently than He does rebellion. Whereas the Lord warns that unrepented rebellion will bring punishment, when the Lord speaks of weaknesses, it is always with mercy.

- A. Question: What color of tie is Elder Scott wearing?
- B. Bonus questions

12. Put Your Trust in the Lord By Elder M. Russell Ballard

Brothers and sisters, fear will be replaced with faith and confidence when members and the full-time missionaries kneel in prayer and ask the Lord to bless them with missionary opportunities. Then, we must demonstrate our faith and watch for opportunities to introduce the gospel of Jesus Christ to our Heavenly Father's children, and surely those opportunities will come. These opportunities will never require a forced or a contrived response. They will flow as a natural result of our love for our brothers and sisters. Just be positive, and those who you speak with will feel your love.

- A. Question: Who gave this talk? M Russell Ballard (extra point what does M stand for? Melvin)
- B. Bonus questions

13. SONG: There is Sunshine in my soul today

- A. 2 part questions: What color are the dresses of women in the choir wearing?? (Blue) What color are the toes of the men in the choir? Red White and Blue

14. Like a Broken Vessel By Elder Jeffrey R. Holland

So how do you best respond when mental or emotional challenges confront you or those you love? Above all, never lose faith in your Father in Heaven, who loves you more than you can comprehend. As President Monson said to the Relief Society sisters so movingly last Saturday evening at this pulpit: "That love never changes. ... It is there for you when you are sad or happy, discouraged or hopeful. God's love is there for you whether or not you feel you deserve [it]. It is simply always there" Thomas S. Monson, "[We Never Walk Alone," general Relief Society meeting, Sept. 28, 2013]. Never, ever doubt that, and never harden your heart. Faithfully pursue the time-tested devotional practices that bring the Spirit of the Lord into your life. Seek the counsel of those who hold keys for your spiritual well-being. Ask for and cherish priesthood blessings. Take the sacrament every week, and hold fast to the perfecting promises of the Atonement of Jesus Christ. Believe in miracles. I have seen so many. They came when every indication would say that hope was lost. Hope is never lost. If those miracles do not come soon or fully or seemingly at all, remember the Savior's own anguished example: if the bitter cup does not pass, drink it and be strong, trusting in happier days ahead see [Luke 23:36].

- A. Question: Fill in the blanks:

_____ love is there for _____ whether or not you _____ you _____ [it]. It is s_____ always there (" God's love is there for you whether or not you feel you deserve [it]. It is simply always there")

- B. Bonus questions

15. The Moral Force of Women By Elder D. Todd Christofferson

A pernicious philosophy that undermines women's moral influence is the devaluation of marriage and of motherhood and homemaking as a career. Some view homemaking with outright contempt, arguing it demeans women and that the relentless demands of raising children are a form of exploitation. They ridicule what they call "the mommy track" as a career. This is not fair or right. We do not diminish the value of what women or men achieve in any worthy endeavor or career—we all benefit from those achievements—but we still recognize there is not a higher good than motherhood and fatherhood in marriage. There is no superior career, and no amount of money, authority, or public acclaim can exceed the ultimate rewards of family. Whatever else a woman may accomplish, her moral influence is no more optimally employed than here.

- A. Question: What does Elder Christofferson say is good, has ultimate rewards and we benefit from? motherhood and fatherhood
- B. Bonus questions

16. Welcome to Conference By President Thomas S. Monson

Now is the time for members and missionaries to come together, to work together, to labor in the Lord's vineyard to bring souls unto Him. He has prepared the means for us to share the gospel in a multitude of ways, and He will assist us in our labors if we will act in faith to fulfill His work.

- A. Question: Who needs to come together? _____ & _____
- B. Bonus questions

17. No Other Gods By Elder Dallin H. Oaks

Our twelfth article of faith states our belief in being subject to civil authority and in "obeying, honoring, and sustaining the law." But man's laws cannot make moral what God has declared immoral. Commitment to our highest priority—to love and serve God—requires that we look to His law for our standard of behavior. For example, we remain under divine command not to commit adultery or fornication even when those acts are no longer crimes under the laws of the states or countries where we reside. Similarly, laws legalizing so-called "same-gender marriage" do not change God's law of marriage or His commandments and our standards concerning it. We remain under covenant to love God and keep His commandments and to refrain from serving other gods and priorities—even those becoming popular in our particular time and place.

- A. Question: Fill in the blanks: But man's laws cannot make moral what God has declared immoral.
- B. Bonus questions

18. SONG: We Thank Thee O for a Prophet God

19. "I Will Not Fail Thee, Nor Forsake Thee" By President Thomas S. Monson

Our Heavenly Father, who gives us so much to delight in, also knows that we learn and grow and become stronger as we face and survive the trials through which we must pass. We know that there are times when we will experience heartbreaking sorrow, when we will grieve, and when we may be tested to our limits. However, such difficulties allow us to change for the better, to rebuild our lives in the way our Heavenly Father teaches us, and to become something different from what we were—better than what we were, more understanding than what we were, more empathetic than what we were, with stronger testimonies than we had before.

This should be our purpose—to persevere and endure, yes, but also to become more spiritually refined as we make our way through sunshine and sorrow.

- A. Question: What jesters does Pres Monson use when he says "sunshine and sorrow" (Sunshine – hand raised up to sky –sorrow – wiping away tears)

24. Look Ahead and Believe By Elder Edward Dube

While I was a boy working in the fields with my mother, she taught me one of the most important lessons in life. It was late in the morning, the sun was up, and we had been hoeing for what I thought to be a very long time. I stopped to look back at what we had accomplished and said to my mother, "Look at all we have done!" Mother did not respond. Thinking that she had not heard me, I repeated what I had said a little louder. She still did not reply. Raising my voice a little higher, I repeated again. Finally, she turned to me and said, "Edward, never look back. Look ahead at what we still have to do."

- A. Question: what time of day were they working in the fields?
- B. Bonus questions

25. Decisions for Eternity By Elder Russell M. Nelson

We can change our behavior. Our very desires can change. How? There is only one way. True change—permanent change—can come only through the healing, cleansing, and enabling power of the Atonement of Jesus Christ. He loves you—each of you! He allows you to access His power as you keep His commandments, eagerly, earnestly, and exactly. It is that simple and certain. The gospel of Jesus Christ is a gospel of change!

- A. Question: Fill in the blanks: The gospel of Jesus Christ is a gospel of change!
- B. Bonus questions

26. Power in the Priesthood By Elder Neil L. Andersen

We sometimes overly associate the power of the priesthood with men in the Church. The priesthood is the power and authority of God given for the salvation and blessing of all—men, women, and children.

A man may open the drapes so the warm sunlight comes into the room, but the man does not own the sun or the light or the warmth it brings. The blessings of the priesthood are infinitely greater than the one who is asked to administer the gift.

To receive the blessings, power, and promises of the priesthood in this life and the next is one of the great opportunities and responsibilities of mortality.

- A. Question: Was Elder Andersen wearing glasses? YES
- B. Bonus questions

27. Be Ye Converted By Bonnie L. Oscarson

Young friends, we live in perilous times, and the decisions which you are called upon to make on a daily, or even hourly, basis have eternal consequences. The decisions you make in your daily life will determine what happens to you later. If you do not yet have a firmly rooted testimony and conviction that The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is the kingdom of God on the earth, now is the time to do what it takes to gain that conviction. To delay making the effort required to earn that kind of conviction can be dangerous to your soul.

Question: Which decisions will determine what happens to you later.

 - B. Hourly
 - C. Eternal
 - D. All the above?
- B. Bonus questions

29. The Windows of Heaven By Elder David A. Bednar

(Chorus)

Onward, ever onward, as we glory in his name;

Onward, ever onward, as we glory in his name;

Forward, pressing forward, as a triumph song we sing.

God our strength will be; press forward ever,

Called to serve our King.
